

All Hallows' Eve, When the Veil is Thin Between the Worlds...

Dances of Universal Peace

with Jilani

Samhain, All Souls, the Celtic New Year, a time when the veil between the worlds grows thin. The Goddess takes the form of the Crone, the wise woman; and the earth enters its dark, inward phase for rest and recuperation before rebirth. Come! Ride the waning moon and explore these qualities as we move towards winter. We will use sacred dance and chant, spiritual walks, ceremony and other meditation practices to go deep within ourselves and honour the mystery of the cycle of transformation. The seeds of new beginnings are fertilised by the composting of what we no longer need.

Saturday 31st October 10 am (for a 10.30 start) to 4.30 pm
£30 (Concessions available)

Nevern Village Hall, near Newport, Pembrokeshire, SA43 0NB

All welcome, croeso i bawb

Bring veggie food to share, and shawls, cushions etc.
to make yourself comfortable

Jilani is an international Dance Leader and musician, who powerfully transmits the sacred, mystical energy of these Dances, whilst also bringing lightness, humour and joy. Her Dance workshops are always an invitation to journey deeply, profoundly supported in a safe and held space where people can feel confident. Her relaxed and patient teaching style means the dancers easily learn the words, chants and movements.
